AVAILABLE AT

*Offer valid on any Goodman® or Amana® brand single-phase residential air conditioner, heat pump, gas furnace, packaged units or air handler regardless of efficiency level. Equipment must be installed in a single-family, owner-occupied residential home. See your local distributor for complete list of qualifying equipment. Participating dealer/contractors must be registered and approved to offer GoodCare® or AsureSM extended service contracts. Claims for sales and installation dates that are before or after the promotional dates will not be honored. Valid only at participating distributors. Offer not valid on previously purchased equipment. No rainchecks. Additional restrictions may apply. Ask for complete details. Offer not valid in Oklahoma. In Florida, the Distributor may not sell the Service Agreement to the Dealer for less than Distributor's cost per unit, and the dealer may not sell the Service Agreement to the homeowner for less than the dealer's cost per unit. Offer may be changed or cancelled without advance notice. Void where prohibited by law. Offer valid 01/01/12 through 05/31/12. You must enter into Service Bench all extended service plan sales that qualify for the promotion by May 15, 2012. All paperwork must be turned into GBG, Inc. by June 8th, 2012 – otherwise the promotional prices will be voided and you will be charged regular warranty pricing.
